

There Was an Old Woman ...

There Was an Old Woman...

This New Zealand retelling of the traditional tale There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly is packed with rhyme, rhythm, and repetition. Featuring New Zealand native animals, There Was an Old Woman... comes in a Big Book for Shared Reading and a Small Book for Guided Reading. With additional non-fiction information for extension (Level 19-20,) photographs with both Te Reo and English labels, and Teacher's Notes, this book may not excite your tastebuds, but it will warm your heart!

“ You think the old woman swallowed a fly? Kao! This is our kuaia, and what a puku nui she has! This wonderful book will make you korikori with laughter. ”
 – Joy Cowley
